

INDEMNITY AND HOLD HARMLESS AGREEMENT

Date: _____

Liability Understanding: Under Texas Law (Chapter 87), Civil Practices and Remedies Code, an equine professional is not liable for injury to or death of a participant in equine activities resulting from the inherent risks of equine activities.

Boarders, renters, lessees, riding students, owners, show participants, hereafter referred to as Riders, participating in the activities, including riding horses and taking rising lessons, from Oyster Creek Farm, do so at their own risk. Riders, guests of riders and parents and/or guardians of riders agree that the example activities are the Rider’s own risk:

1. Entrance on the premises where activities are being conducted.
2. Participation in the activities on the premises.
3. Riding horses and/or taking lessons on the premises.

Riders (and/or parents or guardians), agree to indemnify and hold harmless Oyster Creek Farm, its owners, staff, and agents to include the actual owners of record of any horse used in lessons by Oyster Creek Farm from and against any and all damages, claims cost injuries, liabilities, demands and expenses including legal fees of any variety, arising out of or connected with the transportation, boarding, training, leasing, sale of horses, riding, riding instructions, showing, whether on the premises , or at premises of other clinics, sales, training or showing horses, is being conducted.

For the Rider who desires insurance, accident and/or liability, may obtain information from their respective insurance company.
